

6516209931.txt

I value the radio services I receive from xm radio, including the traffic and weather stations. I know where the stations are and can instantly find them when I'm in an unfamiliar city, instead of searching through the dial, usually unsuccessfully. I also want to pay for radio stations which are not subject to censure, which gives me the freedom to listen to what I want without government interference. This freedom needs to be preserved. Thank you for your time.